

Reviewed by
Mrs. Lungociu

The Lemonade Club by Patricia Polacco

“And if life gives you a lemon or two today, just add water and sugar and what do you have? Lemonade!”

Cover photo taken by Mrs. Lungociu.

Traci and Marilyn are best friends and students in Miss Wichelman's class but their world is turned upside down when Marilyn is diagnosed with Leukemia, a form of cancer. After rounds of chemo and losing all of her hair, Marilyn returns to school and is welcomed back by her whole class, but everyone is bald! They have all shaved their heads in support of Marilyn. After a while everyone's hair grows back except for Miss Wichelman's, and she doesn't seem as happy as usual. What is bothering Miss Wichelman and how can Traci and Marilyn help?